

The Kentucky Association for Gifted Education (KAGE), officially organized in 1979, is a non-profit volunteer group of parents, teachers, administrators, other educators, and all citizens interested in being advocates for appropriate educational opportunities for gifted and talented youth in Kentucky.

Fill out the form below and mail it to KAGE, PO Box 9610, Bowling Green, KY 42101-9610
You can also join online at www.kagegifted.org

This association seeks to

- support appropriate educational opportunities for gifted and talented students;
- respond proactively to current educational initiatives as they relate to gifted and talented students;
- encourage the improvement of educational services to all students, including students who are gifted and talented; offer training for parents and all educators of gifted and talented students;
- create strategic partnerships that enable KAGE to reach out to key constituencies and more broadly communicate important messages related to high potential youth;
- disseminate information about opportunities for gifted and talented students as well as for parents and educators of these students;
- inform the public of the needs of gifted and talented students;
- assist parents, all educators, and public officials in identifying and assessing resources to meet the needs of students who are gifted and talented;
- provide scholarship assistance through the KAGE Foundation to qualified students participating in summer gifted programs offered by Kentucky public universities; and secure permanent state funding and legislation to provide appropriate education for the gifted and talented students in every school district in Kentucky.
